

Logistic details for the training week in Turin, 4-8 July 2016

To reach Turin,

There are different possibilities:

By train:

The fast speed train could be taken from Rome, Bologne, Milan. You can look at the website to obtain more information: http://www.trenitalia.com/. You can flight to Rome and then take a fast speed train. Traveling time to Torino is about 4 hours from Rome, 1 hour from Milan.

By flight:

Fly into Milano Malpensa Airport (MXP)/Milano Linate Airport (LIN) / Bergamo Airport (BGY). Than you can take a bus in Malpensa Airport/Bergamo Airport than comes directly to Turin downtown. It takes 2 hours to reach Turin. The ticket costs 22 EUR one way. Look at http://www.sadem.it/media/5191/000020.pdf for bus schedule and more info.

Fly to Turin Airport (TRN) and take a bus (30 min trip) to reach downtown. Look at http://www.sadem.it/media/6355/000268.pdf for bus schedule and more info. Ticket costs 5 EUR.

We suggest to book flight to Milan/Bergamo airports, they are usually cheaper and may be you find direct flights. Sometimes, however, you could find good deals also to flights toward Turin Airport.

For the hotels, you could search through booking the hotel nearby the meeting venue (via Verdi 8, Torino) or take them from the list sent by Patrizia Busato. We recommend you hotel Genio, http://www.hotelgenio.it (less expensive) or hotel Victoria, http://www.hotelvictoria-torino.com, nearby the venue (more expensive).

Once in Turin, you could use taxi (radio taxi - 011-5730/5737), or the public transport. For info on bus trasnportation - http://www.gtt.to.it/cms/, available also GTT Mobile App for IOS, Android - how to move with public transport and metro in Turin.
